

2011 State of the Port: Address & Luncheon

November 4, 2011 | 11:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m.

The Independence Seaport Museum | Philadelphia, PA

If you're involved in international business, whether you export or import, your business depends on one of the Greater Philadelphia region's greatest assets: its infrastructure. With expanding port, airport and rail facilities on the horizon, the Greater Philadelphia region is poised for tremendous growth along the Delaware River – a thriving gateway for international trade!

The State of the Port Address and Luncheon is your opportunity to gather with the local port community and learn of the latest global and regional port developments affecting your business growth. This event is organized by the World Trade Center of Greater Philadelphia (WTCGP) and the World Trade Association (WTA) of Philadelphia, Inc.
